

Dr. EunMi Cho

유은미 您恩美

eunmicho@csus.edu

California State University, Sacramento

How to Work Effectively with East Asian-Americans

Greetings and Checking In

With the person who sits next you, please respond to these two prompts. Greet your partner with a big smile first!

1. Two Prompts

- a. What about your thinking or work that brought you to this training today? Why are you here?
- b. What area(s) did you encounter success or struggle last week while working with East Asian American families?

2. Norm Settings: notes, parking lot, etc

Cultural Competency Building

on People from China, Korea, &
Japan

Cultural Competency Training Materials Include:

Handbook

With the following content,

- A. History, Geography, Politics
- B. Language and interpersonal relationships
- C. Greetings, displays of respect and general etiquette
- D. Status, Role Prestige
- E. Marriage, Family and Kinship Structure
- F. Gender Roles; reproduction
- G. Childhood and Socialization
- H. Adolescence, Adulthood and Old Age
- I. (ex) Hmong and Hmong-Americans and Disabilities
- J. Services in California for Hmong-Americans

➤ People in the U.S. Fact Sheet

Video Clips on Asian Cultures

Websites on Asian Cultures

Cultural Centers on Asian Cultures in the Greater Sacramento area and CA

Cultural and Language Weekend Schools in the Greater Sacramento area Asian Churches and Temples in the Greater Sacramento area and CA

Power Point Slides

Power Point Slide Handouts