

Emergency Preparedness: What's The Plan?

THURSDAY,
DECEMBER 1
1-2PM

Topic of Discussion

The Association of Regional Center Agencies is pleased to announce our next webinar, on emergency preparedness.

We'll talk about what kind of emergencies Californians face, how to plan for them, and steps you should take before, during, and after an emergency. The needs of people living independently, with family, and in residential facilities will all be a part of this.

We'll get an update on how regional centers are a part of the many agencies that respond to emergencies, and there will also be a how-to segment on ways you can develop your own plan!

While this is open to the public, you will need to register for the event. After registering, you will receive an email with more information about how to join the webinar.

ASL interpretation will be available.

Estará disponible traducción al español.

Click here to register or scan the QR Code. >>>

ARCA's previous webinars are available on-demand! Prior topics include employment, the regional center intake process, and social recreation information for both service providers and parents/people with developmental disabilities. Please see our Public Webinars page for archived materials.