

Planning Through Conversations

Parents of teens and adults are invited to a virtual webinar to gain valuable insight on planning!

During this presentation, you will learn:

- the responsibilities of Alta California Regional Center and your Service Coordinator when facilitating services;
- the role of the regional center in regard to conservatorship;
- how services can change when a client transitions from a child to an adult;
- the process of recommending and selecting a day program;
- and more!

Learn about and register for upcoming dates and times by clicking this link or by scanning the QR Code

Alta California
Regional Center